

Gino Severini

Abstract/Automatic Drawing

Gino Severini was an Italian painter and a leading member of the Futurist movement.

One way to make an abstract work is to draw with your eyes closed!

Use a black crayon, close your eyes, and draw in the section below using curved and straight lines.

Afterwards, colour in the shapes you have created using crayons, markers or paints.

Try here and keep your eyes shut while drawing the lines.

